Prayer Shawls – Who Deserves Them?

Who should get the prayer shawls that are knitted or crocheted out of unconditional love?

Anyone who feels the need for prayer. Wow! Who doesn't need prayer? And who doesn't occasionally feel the need for prayer? There are so many times and so many reasons for prayer. How often do we speak to God? And conversely, have we ever felt that God is distant? At those times, the physical reminder of some yarn crafted with loving hands and prayerful hearts can wrap us in the security that He's not so far away as we might have thought.

If we're ill, we pray more and need more prayer. When we're grateful, we pray more. When something wonderful or disastrous happens in our lives, we are likely to talk to God or need reminders that He listens. In times of uncertainty, we turn to prayer as well.

If you or someone you know is in need of a prayer shawl, please contact Maryjane in the parish office.

Senior Services in Your Community: No Compass Required

Most of us were raised to believe that if you want something done right, you have to do it yourself. But when it comes to finding senior services, 'doing it yourself' usually means 50 browser tabs, unreturned voice mails and often a headache. We call this presentation "no compass required" because you shouldn't need a map to find help in your own community. Our goal for our expert panel discussion is to provide answers and resources when taking care of your loved ones.

<h2>Myths and Facts About Managing High Cholesterol</h2>
Myth #1: All Cholesterol Is Bad Fact: Your body needs some cholesterol to stay healthy, but you can have too much. Your total cholesterol number is the sum of a few types, mostly LDL, or low-density lipoprotein cholesterol, and HDL, or high-density lipoprotein cholesterol. Problems happen when you have too much LDL – it's the one most likely to clog your arteries. HDL is thought of as the "good" cholesterol because it can help sweep LDL away.	Myth #3: A No-Fat Diet Is the Best Diet Fact: When it comes to fat, it's not all or nothing – your body needs fat, but it should be the right kind. The top choice is unsaturated fats, which can be polyunsaturated, like walnuts, sunflower seeds, flaxseed, and fatty fish, or mono-unsaturated, like olive oil and avocados. Make the switch to help lower your high LDL and boost your heart health.
Myth #2: High-Cholesterol Foods Are to Blame Fact: The American Heart Association says to get less than 300 milligrams of cholesterol a day from food, but it turns out that saturated fats are the bigger problem. Red meat, butter, and full-fat dairy are the most common sources. What about eggs? One large egg has 186 milligrams of cholesterol and just 1.6 grams of saturated fat, or 8% of the daily cap, so you can enjoy them in moderation.	Myth #4: You Can Eat What You Want if You're Taking Cholesterol Meds Fact: It takes a few steps to control cholesterol and prevent its complications, like heart disease and stroke. Medication is just one of them. You also want to follow a heart-healthy diet that includes fruits, vegetables, and whole grains rich in fiber, plus foods with unsaturated fats like fatty fish, nuts, seeds, and olive oil. (More Myths to come in future bulletin Parish Nurse News)

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

MARCH 28 - APRIL 3, 2026

Guilford Parish Offers Support for Those Living with Mental Illness

- Story by Joe Pisani

Almost 25 years ago, Deacon Adam Michaele was moved by a heart-breaking situation when a young woman had her engagement broken and lost her friends because of mental illness.

"She had nothing and no one to go to, and we knew we had to do something," he recalls. That's when he and his wife Rose began a mental health ministry to offer people suffering from loneliness to depression, stress, autism and anxiety a place to turn for support. Since then, they have assisted dozens of people, most of whom had nowhere to turn.

The Mental Health Ministry Spiritual Support Group is hosted by St. George Parish in Guilford and has members from the shoreline parishes. Meetings are held on the campus of St. George Church.

"People in the group offer support for each other"

"The group offers a safe and confidential environment where people who live with mental illness can meet and share their experiences, their concerns and their faith," says Deacon Michaele. "It is not group therapy, and behavioral health professionals are not involved, but through support, prayer and reflections, members can grow closer in their relationship with our loving God."

Deacon Adam is a certified Catholic mental health minister with a master's degree in spiritual and pastoral care. He was a founding board member of the Association of Catholic Mental Health Ministers, and three years ago received the Archdiocese of Hartford's social justice award for his work.

Rose Michaele provides spiritual accompaniment and previously facilitated a group for caregivers.

"My wife Rose has been there every step of the way and offers a gentle touch and womanly perspective that I cannot provide," Deacon Michaele says.

"People in the group offer support for each other, and a camaraderie has built up," Rose says. "Some of them live alone and don't have family, some can't drive, and older members are lonely and feel their vulnerability. Many suffer from the stigma associated with mental illness and don't want to speak about it because they're afraid of being ostracized."

Meetings begin with a prayer, and Deacon Michaele asks them to share their experiences while members offer suggestions when someone has a problem. Later, they discuss a spiritual reading or the Gospel. The meetings end with a blessing, and Rose gives them treats to take home. The Michaelaes also take members to events, such as the St. George Thanksgiving Day dinner and the parish annual carnival.

"We support them and try to get them out so they're not home alone," Rose says. "Sometimes we treat them to lunch and a movie, which they look forward to."

Members are required to adhere to certain rules.

"We have rules about confidentiality," Deacon Michaele says. "If they have a therapist, they can't abruptly stop treatment without having a plan to get another one. They also can't abruptly stop their medication."

During the week, the Michaelaes make themselves available to members.

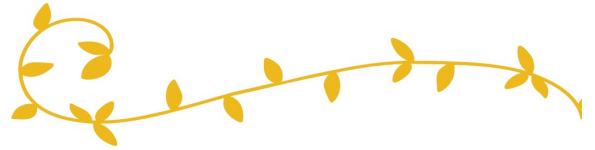

Deacon Adam Michaele and his wife Rose oversee the Mental Health Ministry Spiritual Support Group hosted by St. George Parish, Guilford. They are members of St. John Bosco Parish in Branford.

"Anyone can come in any time and sit with us if they have a problem," Deacon Michaele says. "We get calls and support them with our prayers and understanding. The door is always open."

The Mental Health Ministry Spiritual Support Group meets the second and fourth Sundays from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Ruiz Center on the campus of St. George Church, 33 Whitfield St., Guilford. For dates and more information, contact St. George Parish, 203.453.2788.
